

SUMMER FUN AT BREWER PARK

Weekly Themes 2009

HAPPY CANADA DAY! June 29 - July 3

Why wait until July 1st to celebrate Canada Day? This whole week children will explore their proud Canadian heritage. Campers will learn about the beautiful provinces and territories that make up our amazing country! Red and white day, a Canadian treasure hunt, songs and true Canadian sports are just a few activities of what promises to be an exciting week! Our art teacher Madame Kristine, will join us to share her amazing talents with our campers!

ECO ADVENTURISTS: July 6 - July 10

Reduce, Reuse and Recycle... we will have fun focusing on the importance of respecting the environment. A bird's eye view of this fascinating week includes a nature walk to Brewer Pond, nature scavenger hunts, making bird feeders and planting trees. MASC performers and a visit from a beekeeper will bring excitement to our exploration!

TEAM BUILDING: July 13 - July 17

Children will be grouped together in numerous activities in an effort to promote team spirit. Our campers will be involved in various games, scavenger hunts and sports and we will welcome guest speakers from the CNIB, CHAMPS and the Canadian Hearing Impaired Society. A visit to Cosmic Adventures will conclude the week.

AROUND THE WORLD: July 20 - July 24

Join us as we highlight the various world cultures and customs of Australia, Africa, Mexico, France and Italy through games, dance, music and arts and crafts. The week will end with a picnic of international foods. Madame Laura, our talented music specialist, will sing with our campers!

SUMMER FUN!!: July 27 - July 31

As our camp experience winds down, our final week together will be a pot-pourri of summer fun! Games, sports, music, a Hawaiian beach party and Christmas in July will highlight our week!

**Kindly note that scheduling is subject to change depending on the availability of our guest speakers.*
